(DALLAS) – Norma's Cafe, the original Dallas dining icon serving Texas-style home cooking, will partner with Special Olympics Texas on Tuesday, May 12 for the Law Enforcement Torch Run's Tip-A-Cop, an event where law enforcement agency officers serve Norma's Cafe customers in order to raise awareness of Special Olympics Texas. One of 77 chapters in North America, Special Olympics Texas provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities. Funds raised at the Tip-A-Cop event will support the various athletic programs within the organization.

"Last year's Tip-A-Cop event was a huge success and Norma's Cafe is thrilled to again partner with Special Olympics Texas to support their programs benefiting more than 51,000 individuals state-wide," said Ed Murph, owner of Norma's Cafe. "Giving back to the communities we serve is at the core of Norma's Cafe and we encourage guests to join us for this exciting event."

The Law Enforcement Torch Run is the largest grassroots fundraiser for Special Olympics across the world at which local law enforcement officers worldwide carry the "Flame of Hope" through the community streets, delivering it to their local Special Olympics Games. The organization began its partnership with law enforcement officials in 1981.

"We are excited to partner with Norma's Cafe again", said Margaret Larsen, president and CEO of Special Olympics Texas. "Last year's Tip A Cop event greatly helped Special Olympics Texas continue to offer those with intellectual disabilities the chance to develop physical fitness, experience joy and demonstrate courage through sports."
